MANY LIVES LOST.Reports of Marine Disasters Are Still Reaching St. John's.

A dispatch from St. John's, N. F., says that reports of marine disasters during last week's gale continue to pour in from remote localities. Advices show 17 more vessels ashore and 13 lives lost. Considerable damage was done to property along the seaboard.

Hope for the safety of four other vessels, with crews aggregating 25, is almost abandoned.

A despatch from North Sydney, C. B. says that the fishing schooner Finance, Porle, master, of Belloram, N. F., went ashore at Big Glace bay on Saturday night, and is probably a total loss, as half a gale of wind is blowing and driving her upon rocks.

Herring.

Mackerel News.

Sch. Corsair, which arrived at Boston with fresh mackerel on Tuesday, lost her seine off Nahant early Tuesday morning. The vessel had 250 barrels fresh mackerel and was running them to market in water. Her deck was all lumbered up, when when she encountered the fierce blow of the early morning. There was no chance to get the seine on deck before it swept out of the boat. Capt. McGray thinks he will be able to pick it up again.

Sch. Rob Roy was at Provincetown during the recent storm and came out from there Tuesday afternoon.

Sch. Helen Miller Gould will lay in a few days to make some slight repairs to her machinery.

A large fleet of seiners anchored at Provincetown on Tuesday.

About 30 sail mackerel were at Boothbay Harbor on Monday. The seiners fleet had not taken any mackerel for a week except two or three sail.

Sch. Henrietta Francis was at Portland Tuesday with 180 barrels of mackerel.

The fare of sch. Titania sold to Fred. Bradley at $12 per bbl. for rimmed and $11 for plain.

The fare of sch. Madonna sold to John Pew & Son at $11 1-2 per bbls.

Fishing Schooner Ashore.

The 50-ton fishing sch. Eddie of Newport, R. I., went ashore on Brown's Island, about three miles from Plymouth, on Monday night.

After the Eddie anchored in the lee of the island, Monday afternoon, the wind shifted to the northeast and swung her on the shoals, where she lay in a dangerous position, with little hope of saving her, as a heavy sea was running, although the tug Nabbie C., was sent to her assistance.

The crew of 10 men was removed by the Gurnet life savers.

Newfoundland Bank Fishery.

The Newfoundland Bank fishery this season has been very successful, all the bankers engaged doing well. At Burin they have an average of 1100 quintals each, and at Grand Banks they have about the same average. The price given by the buyers is good, and all those interested will find it a paying business this year. The loss of life to those engaged has been small, only two fatalities occurring.

Second Trip.

Sch. Masconomo, Capt. William Nelson arrived from a hand line dory codfishing trip to Quero Bank this morning with a fine fare of 210,000 pounds of salt cod. This is the Masconomo's second trip this season.

Big Share.

The crew of sch. Monitor, Capt. Stephen Black, shared $132 as the result of their recent record-breaking halibut trip.

An Old Time Luxury.

A Portsmouth fish dealer has just received 1500 pounds of Isles of Shoals dun fish. Long ago the Shoals dun fish was recognized as the perfection of cured fish, but none of it has been in the market for the last five years or more.
